“ I am sorry to hear of such a heartbreaking tragedy and offer my condolences to the whole family. I'm not sure if I ever met her but wish I had. My grandparents Denis and Frances Bryant have both passed now, and I wish I had gotten to know more of the family

“ To Uncle James, and To Russ, Jimmy, Craig, Rachel, Becky, and Johnny, and your families: You are most certainly in my daily thoughts and prayers. I am so deeply sorry for this tragedy. I know what a tremendous loss this is for each of you. Words fail in this situation, but I send Love and my deepest condolences.

I have greatly missed 4th of July celebrations and long afternoons at Grandma's house with all of you. This is how I knew and remember Aunt Dorothy the most. She was kind and sweet to me always, and I loved her for that. She shall always be remembered in my heart and mind.

Please feel free to contact me. I have sent a card to the funeral home with my info in it.
