“ I remember when my lights went out one night then dad went out in the cold to bring me a flash light. I remember when I was having seizures when I had my first one. That night he moved my bed into his and mom's bedroom. When I was working he had came by on his break and brought me some breakfast every day I had to work. I remember when cat had past away that I had for 19 years he went to the shelter for dogs and cats and found me a cute 4 month old kitten. I name him after my brother and my dad. Jon Allen. He is 6 now. I remember when dad try to teach me how to drive out in the country. I had put on the brakes cause he was falling asleep. It had woke dad up fast. Dad will be well missed not forgotten. Love you always Dad..... Detra.
