My grandmother, Alice [Hanks] Thomas, kept in touch with Anna up until about 1998. Her husband, Richard "Dick" Thomas Copeland was her nephew. My grandmother was married to Arthur Noble Thomas, who was the youngest brother of Fannie Adeline Thomas, mother of Richard. I don't remember Richard or Anna, but I know they meant a lot to my grandmother. It appears Anna was a beautiful lady and I wish the family had remained in contact. My best wishes to the Copeland family!

“ Dear Rick, Pam, and the whole extended Copeland family,\r\n\r\nI am so sorry to hear of the loss of your Anna Mae. She was always a warm and loving person and welcomed us into her home on several occasions. I love the fact that she supported the 4H organization, enjoyed working with kids, and loved the horses. I am sure these are just a few of her lasting contributions and legacies. You are all in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.\r\n\r\nWith much love, Becky and The Bleibaum family (Kevin, Erin, and Alex)
