He is survived by his loving wife; four children, Andrew T. Eichel of Atlanta, GA, Autumn L. Morgan and husband Mitch Turner of Mattoon, IL, Adam E. Morgan of Indianapolis, IN, and Alec C. Bill was a former employee of Justrite Mfg. in Mattoon, IL, Schrock Cabinets in Arthur, IL, RR Donnelley in Mattoon, IL, and Trailmobile in Charleston, IL, but he was most proud of the work he did on airplane interiors at Coles County Memorial Airport. He especially enjoyed fishing along the creeks and river near Humboldt and Cooks Mills. In the end, the thing he prized the most was being “Poppy” to his four grandchildren.

“ I worked with Bill at Justrite....we were mostly on opposite shifts,but as a small team of people get to work together you get to know one another. I worked with Bill for over 5 years, we didn't always agree or see eye to eye,but we respected each other. I just happened to run into Bill at a local restaurant and knew from his physical appearance there was something wrong. I took the time to talk with him and pray with him after seeing him and hearing he had Cancer. My wife just went through Cancer so my heart went out to him then. I am saddened to hear that he passed away. My heart is breaking as I am typing this.

To Bill's family, I will keep you all in my prayers. May God watch over your family and comfort you,and lift you up and know that the spirit of Bill is alive in all of us who have met him and worked with him. God Bless Bill Rest in peace buddy

Sincerely Wally Owen (Justrite)
