Sympathy to you, Larry, and your family. Brenda was always so active, full of energy, always with a smile. One of my unforgettable memories was back to teen-agers. One of her horses pushed past her through an open gate. It took off across the highway, through yards, and three fields before it finally stopped. Brenda and I were chasing that onery horse all the way! Talk about winded!!! hahaha Brenda and I, at least, got a ride back---bareback. urgh.

May God bless you all as you struggle through your loss. Hoping Brenda and her beloved dog met at the Rainbow bridge; together again. Nancy Montonye Booker
