“ *Dear John,
I am so sorry for your loss. I said a prayer for you after you called me. I regret that I will not be able to attend any of the services but I will be thinking of you and your family. One of my fondest memories was at a dinner that you and Rosie attended with my wife Stelma and I. I was asked to say the blessing so our table got to go through the food line first. You and Rosie both said that from now on you would always sit with us so we could eat first.*

May God comfort you in the coming days and weeks.

*Sincerely,
Delbert D. Dunn*
