“ I understand your pain of losing a parent. We have the consolation, however, of knowing there is no more pain for them; that helps a little. With time, it will get easier to accept. As you already know, God is ALL knowing, and HE understands your pain as well. We must look back & remember all of the good our loved one did for us and others as well, and how God allowed them to share HIM with. (I'm sorry I won't be here for the services, had plans & leaving Mon. early a.m. for Texas, but will continue having you all in prayer).

“ I grew up a neighbor to Dayrel. Although I was a few years younger than Dayrel, I have many fond memories of childhood with him. I remember one day when Dayrel took my brother and me hill climbing through the pasture on his Harley-Davidson motorcycle. While it was a memorable occasion, I never really cared to ride a motorcycle after that day!

“ Dayrel was one of the finest sincere men I've ever met. We knew each other from 1993 when I bought the wooded land just behind his home on Old State Road. It was amazing to see him run a huge Caterpillar to cut the lane access up to my land. He was pretty fearless and a real 'doer'!\n\n\nMy best to Wanda, and to their family.
