“ I cannot believe that Dorothy has left this earth, but thrilled for her that she walks hand in hand with Jesus now. I hadn't seen her here for a while at the Fellowship Center, and wondered where she was. I am so very, very sad. Dorothy was the sweetest of ladies and so loving and personable. Her obituary highlights her charming qualities, and she was those, and more. I just found out of her passing now at this very moment, and so disappointed because I would have liked to attend her funeral. You, who are her daughters, will definitely emulate Dorothy's love, compassion, and understanding. Dorothy was the epitome of sweetness. Fly high to your mansion in the sky, sweet lady!
