

Elenore "Ellie" Rose Moberley

December 16, 1924 - March 7, 2023

Elenore "Ellie" Rose Moberley, age 98 of Newman, IL formerly of Sun City, AZ passed away on March 7, 2023.

A graveside service in her honor will be held at 10:00 AM Saturday, March 11, 2023, at Windsor Cemetery in Windsor, IL. Reverend Ron Dickinson will officiate.

Elenore was born on December 16, 1924, in Whitley Township, IL to the late Donald Bruce and Icey (Rose) Moberley. She is survived by one niece, Marla Goss and husband Michael of Decatur, IL; three nephews; David, Steve, and Jeff Moberley; and several great nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by two nieces, Jan Austin, and Becki Anderson.

Ellie earned her Bachelor of Education at Eastern Illinois University in Charleston, IL. As a lifelong educator, Ms. Moberley began her teaching career at Windsor High School, in Windsor, IL before moving to Phoenix, AZ. She continued teaching High School English in Phoenix public schools until her retirement. She was passionate about her profession and made a positive impact on all her students.

Outings, outings, and more outings is what she loved most. In particular, she enjoyed dining out, movies, and attending Hot Air Balloon Festivals with her nieces Becki and Jaymee. During harvest season, she took pleasure in cruising the countryside and reminiscing of her childhood as the daughter of a grain elevator owner. She truly enjoyed all seasons in Illinois. She was an avid baseball fan and spent every day at spring training games near her.

Blessed with a long and happy life, she enjoyed it to the fullest. Fond memories of Ellie will live on.
