“ Gerhard was a servant of God for the people. He was always so kind and conscious of the needs that he served. I got to know him through attending faith builders church where my brother Bill Carter was the Pastor. Gerhard was his right hand man. Judi and Gerhard were wonderful people who had servants heart. “ We will miss Gerhard at Dine/W/A/Doc at Casey Sr Social Center Tuesday 5-19. He came representing Arbor Rose in Charleston where he was the Chaplain He always bought a bouquet of mixed flowers from Walmart & he always drew my number for his door prize. One Day I told him I moved to Casey when I retired from GE in 2001 & he said he worked there too. I worked with him on 3rd shift & he brought a sunsuit with suspenders he wore at age four from Germany to show me. I didn't recognize him it had been so many years. He was a born again believer & my brother in the Lord. I will miss him tomorrow!
