

Hattie R. Bock

September 16, 2018 - April 9, 2012

Hattie R. Bock, 93, of Charleston, formerly of Mattoon, died Monday, April 9, 2012, at 7:08 a.m. in Hilltop Nursing Home. Hattie was born September 16, 1918 in Cross Village, Michigan. She was the daughter of John and Nellie (Klimek) Jessick. On January 23, 1971 she married Everett M. Bock in Williamsville, Illinois. She was a home maker most of her life, staying at home and raising her children, Kathy and Jerry. For about six years, she enjoyed working as a greeter at Wal-Mart. As well as her loving children, Kathy Warren (husband Leland) of Humboldt, and Jerry Kuenle, of Colorado Springs, Colorado, she is also survived by her five grandchildren: Steve Kuenle, Chris Kuenle (Wife, Carrie), Stephanie Woodley (Husband, Eric), Elizabeth Hastings (Husband, Travis), and Michael Warren. She was very close to her two grandsons, Dylan and Connor Woodley. She also leaves behind three brothers, Lewis Jessick, Frank Jessick, and Bill Jessick, and two sisters, Mary Rita Houston, and Jennie Mallory. She was preceded in death by her parents, three brothers, John Jessick, Edward Jessick, and Steve Jessick, and one sister, Stella Gros. Hattie was active in the St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Church in Charleston, where a group of young children adopted her as their own 'grandmother'. She was also active in the Mattoon Senior Center doing ceramics and volunteer work. When she wasn't crocheting, playing Bingo, or nurturing to her snapdragons in the garden, she loved spending time with her family. The family would like to ask that, in lieu of flowers, perhaps you could bring a teddy bear so that they may give back to the children of St. Charles Borromeo who did so much to Hattie during her final years or make a memorial gift to the Coles County Life Span Center. They would also like to express their gratitude to all of the people of the church that took her 'under wing' and ministered to her in so many different ways through the years.\r\n

Tribute Wall

“ Hattie R. Bock

October 08, 2023 at 07:40 PM

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you in your time of grief. May your mmeories bring you comfort and may your hearts soon be filled with wonderful memories of joyful times together.\r\n

Joan Cobb - April 12, 2012 at 07:41 PM