

Hazel Berdina Smith

August 30, 2013 - May 30, 2007

Hazel Berdina Smith, age 93, of Mattoon, formerly of Urbana, passed away at 3:45 a.m. Wednesday, May 30, 2007 at Sarah Bush Lincoln Health Center.\r\n\r\nFuneral services honoring her life will be held 11:00 a.m. Saturday at the Mitchell-Jerdan Funeral Home with Rev. Richard Coen officiating. Interment will follow in Janesville Cemetery. Visitation will be one hour prior to services Saturday at the funeral home.\r\n\r\nHazel Berdina Smith was born August 30, 1913 in Pleasant Grove Township, Coles County, Illinois, a daughter of Tipton Palo and Lillian Stella (Barber) England. She married Raymond Isaac Smith October 10, 1948 at Mattoon. He preceded her in death September 25, 2004. She is survived by a nephew, Duane Carlyle and wife Janice of Mattoon and a niece, Susan Watts and husband Steve of Decatur all of whom took care of her in her latter years. She also leaves a sister-in-law, Ethel C. England of Decatur and several other nieces, nephews and cousins. Four brothers and two sisters preceded her in death.\r\n\r\nHazel was a long time member of the First Christian Church in Champaign. A woman of deep faith, she dearly loved spending time reading the Bible. She also enjoyed spending time cooking and canning. Memorial contributions are suggested to Smyser Christian Church, Gays, IL; or First Christian Church, 3601 S. Staley Road, Champaign, IL 61822.

Tribute Wall

“ Hazel Berdina Smith

October 08, 2023 at 07:40 PM