They provided Ivan with love and dignity during his last few years and made it possible for him to stay in the home he built.
Ivan was a devoted member of the Dewitt Avenue Church of Christ. Throughout his life, Ivan worked diligently at every endeavor. As a young man, he farmed and worked in the oil fields. After marriage and moving to Mattoon, he owned and operated Mattoon Fertilizer Co. for many years. Together with his wife they owned and maintained rental property. With his son, he developed Price Avenue subdivision. He loved weekends at Lake Mattoon with his family. He also enjoyed his winter friends in Homestead, Florida. Ivan lived a full and happy life. His favorite song 'Wonderful Words of Life' was the theme of his life.\r\n\r\nMemorials in his honor may be made to the donor's choice.
