“ How blessed I was that Jane was my sister-in-law for 45 years. Jane lived her life with love, kindness, and a compassionate, forgiving heart. Her long term illness was fought with such courage and determination, insisting she would live each day as a precious gift. She was fun, always smiling and laughing, as well as generous, and hard working. All who knew her respected her beautiful spirit. My deepest sympathy to her entire family and friends.
