“ I am very sorry to hear about this tragic loss. Although it has been quite a long time since I last saw Jeff, I can still hear his laugh and picture his smile when I think about him. I have wonderful memories of hanging out with Jeff when we were younger either at his old house by the cemetary or running around Trilla with his cousin, Scott.\r\n\r\nAs difficult as this time is, we can only hold on to the belief that he was called up for higher things and seek solace in knowing that he is in better place.\r\n\r\nMy prayers and sympathies are with Jeff and his family during this impossible time.

“ Although it has been some time since I last saw Jeff, I can still close my eyes and hear his laugh and see his smile. I have many great memories of the times we shared as kids... either at the old house across from the cemetary or in Trilla visiting with Scott, too.\r\n\r\nIt is truly a tragedy for Jeff to be taken this soon, but we must hold to the belief and understanding that there was a higher calling for him.\r\n\r\nJeff, you will be missed, but I am sure that you are looking down over us now. My prayers are with you and your family during this impossible time.

I remember when I used to go into the Tuscany to work and he would always come bouncing up to me with the most amazing smile. Jeff was always so happy and friendly. He had a great mentor and that was you Uncle Jerry. I pray that you will hold Jeff's beautiful smile in your hearts, and that you find strength in that you raised and amazing young man that will deeply be missed. Your in our thoughts and prayers.
