*I think of you often, Jerry. You were taken way too soon. Met you and all the other "CableDawgs" on Bermuda in 1989 while I was on my honeymoon :o) friends thereafter!
I always enjoyed your visits and going out to visit you! I loved how much you loved and were so proud of your daughter, Amy, and then your grandchild. Loved singing along with you as you played your guitar. The 2 songs that immediately make me think of you are "Wonderful Tonight" and "Tequilla Sunrise". I do miss ya! I appreciate the friend and pen pal (due to my living in NJ and you in Bermuda/Illinois) you were to me. I always knew there was someone that truly cared about me. It's been 15 years since I heard your voice. I hope you are resting peacefully and still playing that guitar. Love ya Jerry!*
