“ Well, it's been a year now, without you. I grieve alone....a piece of me has died with you, but I can't share all the feelings I have with anyone. We had a wonderful 23 years together....ups and downs, through thick and thin. Yet, despite any hardships....our love for each other always prevailed. When we had our "surprise miracle" daughter....we both were in heaven. She has become such a wonderful, successful career girl, a fabulous mother, and a level headed, big hearted woman. Oh Mick...we did something right, in raising her. You always told me,, "When I die....I'm coming back to haunt you!!"in a good, joking kind of way.....I've been looking for you....are you ever coming by?? I still have all your belongings....can't seem to be able to part with them. I have given Dacia, several little things....that I felt she would treasure and enjoy. I have come to realize how much you knew abouteverything that needs fixing. Mick, you were so talented that area. The car breaks...you can fix it, .the furnace breaks...you can fix it, the roof leaks...you can fix it, and these all happened this year. You had such a valuable, vast, knowledge of things....and I miss you. I'm lost every time something happens around here. I have learned to do a lot of things....but, I could never replace you. I just wanted to let you know how important you were ...to me and with me. I find myself still waiting, some days....for you to come home from work...so I can tell you all about my day. Mick, we had a wonderful life together, and I miss you more than I can even share with anyone. I know you understand all my feelings, fears, loves, and desires....most of all, I struggle some days with what I'm to do with all my love for you. I miss you, my friend, my partner, my "baby daddy", my love.... I'm looking forward to being together, in Heaven, and for eternity.....

“ On behalf of myself and the TCHS class of 1965 I want to offer condolences to the family. Mickey and I both lived on Dagggy street when we were very young and we spent a lot of time together.

I admit to loosing track of him after high school. We had searched for him, but with no luck.

Again, I am very sorry for your loss.
