Judy was born on March 26, 1948, in Neoga, IL to the late Bernard and Doris L. (Johnson) Peters. She married Henry J. Hall on February 21, 2004, in Mattoon, IL. He survives and resides in Mattoon, IL. She is also survived by two children, Chad P. Walk and wife Anne of New Lenox, IL, Kelly J. Dwyer of Denver, CO; one stepson, Ryan Hall of Chicago, IL; three sisters, Gloria J. Platz of Mattoon, IL, Jane A. Thomas and husband Eric of Mattoon, IL, Mary T. Sterling and husband Vaughn of Mattoon, IL; three grandchildren, T.J. Hubble, Hannah Walk, Sydney Walk. She was preceded in death by one brother-in-law, John Platz.

Judy was a dedicated member of the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Mattoon, IL. She also held a membership at the Eagles Club in Mattoon, IL. After graduating cosmetology school, Judy launched her very successful career as a beautician. For more than fifty years she was co-owner of Hair Benders Salon and Day Spa in Mattoon, IL; a job she genuinely loved along with her clients.

She enjoyed yardwork, sunshine, and traveling. Beach destinations were among her favorites. She had a passion for life and living in the moment. She embraced time spent with family, especially her children and grandchildren. Judy will be deeply missed but her loved ones will hold tight to the fond memories of her.

The family would like to thank the nurses and staff at the Harmony Center for the support, dedication, and loving care they provided.

Memorials in her honor may be made to the Harmony Center, 201 Lafayette Avenue East, Mattoon, IL 61938.

“ Sending my sincere condolences to Judy's husband, children, Gloria and her other sisters, and family. Judy was my mother's hairdresser and friend for years - I spent more than a few days as a child in her shop while Mom had her hair done. I will always remember her most for the kindness and gift she gave our family when Mom died and Judy did her hair and makeup for the funeral. I know how difficult it was for her to do and I hope she knew what it meant to us and would have meant to Mom. Judy had a smile that lit up the room! I'm glad we were able to see her when the family was in town a few years ago for my father's 80th birthday. Rest in Peace Judy.

“ Judy and I worked next to each other at Hair Benders for years. It breaks my heart to know she has left us. I guess I'm selfish. Although, I know she is happy with her Heavenly Father. I wish I could be there with all of you this week. You all have my sincere condolences. Judy and all of her family always made me feel like I was part of them, and I will miss seeing all of you. Judy was one of my best friends for years. We did each others hair "every 4 weeks" for at least 20 years. My love and prayers to all of you. Rest in Peace, Judy “ Judy and I were good friends for more than 40 years. She did my hair and we traded many many stories between us over the years. My two daughters babysat Kelly Joe and Chad for a long while....Judy really enjoyed our wedding receptions when our kids grew up and married....she loved doing karaoke ... everyone always enjoyed being around Judy she was a fun person ...A beautiful gal. I miss seeing and being around her. Rest In Peace Judy.
