“ OH Julie, first time I met her She had that infectious Beautiful smile! She always Spoke kind words, cared so much for everyone else, she was kinda shy, Once we got to be friends we'd sit and we would talk for hours about life in general, all the laughs and tears too! She adored her nephews always spoke of them often and Brandon how She Loved him and That he was such a good Boy! First time I went to her house I met her Dog Zala who was twice her size and she jumped and knocked Julie down, I jumpEd up to see if she's OK, 'I'm alright' she said, She never complained about anything I swear! Not sure why but she preferred a small circle Or crowd so to speak and I always thought but Julie your so Beautiful don't be shy!!! She was a Giver, she'd give you her last meal even if she was starving! I could go on and on about Her! She Had the Most Sweetest, Kind, Loving Heart and Soul of anyone I have ever met! All I know now is Heaven has Gained the Most Beautiful Angel there ever was!
