“ My condolences to Emily and Mallory. I knew your mom before you were a twinkle in her eye. I have many memories of Eadie as she was known at ICTC when I joined in 1976. I was at her wedding and she came to mine in Chicago in 1987. I vividly remember her dancing at my reception to The Bangles' Walk Like an Egyptian with the full arm movement and turns. She came to Chicago after my son was born and I saw her when I was in Mattoon. Over time our contacts became less frequent and eventually even Christmas cards stopped being exchanged. I hadn't seen Kathy for 20 years, but I cherished that time when she was one of my closest friends. She was fun, joyful, and it makes me sad to know I won't have the chance to hear her laugh again. Godspeed old friend.

“ I remember when Kathy first came to work at Consolidated. She was so exacting and seldom made a mistake
