“ Remembering some fun times shared with Kay at Stewardson-Strasburg High School. We were involved in many of the same activities, and were distant cousins. I was looking forward to seeing her at our 50th class reunion this year. Looks like we'll be waiting for our Heavenly reunion to see each other again! Deepest sympathy to all those who love Kay. May you find comfort and peace in the knowledge of her rejoicing along with the angels in her wonderful, new home!

“ I met Boogie way back in 1975 or thereabouts. She was always very kind, funny and a good friend. My sister Barb, shared a room with Boogie and Marsha as well. They both took Barb in when nobody else could. I'll never forget that. They loved Barb like a sister. Barb also worked with Boogie off and on over the years. I haven't seen Boogie for a couple of years now and I'm sorry about that. I sincerely hope she went to join her loved ones peacefully and no pain. She deserved the very best. Love ya Boogie.

Boog was one of my best friends. We shared plenty of good times working together at Superior Equipment and many good times thereafter. I will miss her laugh and her ornery jokes. She is in a much better place. Rest in Peace.

PS

Boogie was a good friend and was a great organist at the Pleasant Grove Baptist Church. She loved music and being with friends. RIP Boogie, so glad that Rosie and I got to visit with you at the Sullivan nursing home.
