“ I am so deeply sorry to learn of Ken's passing. My most sincere condolences and heartfelt sympathy go out to his entire family. Bev, Ken Jr, Lisa and Bobby, and your families, my heart is breaking for you all. Ken was such a wonderful man. I have such great memories of Bev, myself, and our kids getting together at their house or ours, in Joliet and Wilmington, in the early years of our marriages. I remember Ken's terrific smile, sense of humor, his laugh, the deep love and pride he had for his wife and growing family, and in his service in the US Navy serving his country. He was truly one of the very best, and he will be deeply missed, but lovingly remembered. Bev, my dear long time friend, I am so terribly sorry for your loss. Please know that I'm holding you in my heart, in my loving thoughts and prayers, and asking God to send you comfort. My love to all of you. Anita Boe
