Linda retired from General Electric in Mattoon, IL after thirty-one years of employment. A devoted and God loving woman, Sister Linda endlessly dedicated her life to the kingdom, often working tirelessly without expectation of anything in return. She was a constant fixture amongst the parishioners and true example of kindness and generosity. She served as the head caterer and decorator off all wedding, funeral dinners, and dramas throughout the years; thoroughly enjoying it all.

Linda was a loving wife, nurturing mother and grandmother, and caring sister. A loss amongst us all is Heaven's gain, Linda will be remembered for her beautiful soul.

Memorials in her honor may be made to The Apostolic Church Center.
