Louetta was born March 24, 1935 in Union Center, IL to the late Murray Winfred and Mabel Berlin (Malcolm) Roberts. She married Kenneth Milton Titus on June 12, 1953 in Greenup, IL. She later married Earl Lee Horath on March 22, 1986, he passed away August 9, 2009. She is survived by five children: Connie M. Crockett of Mattoon, IL, Terry K. Titus and wife Jean of Sullivan, IL, Lyle R. Titus and wife Liz of Lerna, IL, Pennie J. Crowe of Mattoon, IL, Donna L. Titus of Mattoon, IL; two stepchildren, Danny L. Horath and wife Candy of Sullivan, IL, Cindy Martin and husband Junior of Effingham, IL; one sister Donna J. James of Greenup IL; fifteen grandchildren; twenty-one great-grandchildren, one great-great grandchild, and dear friend, Lois Traister of Bethany, IL.

Louetta actively attended New Life Church in Sullivan, IL and had a passion for serving other local churches. Throughout the years, she worked as a caregiver, blessing those in need with her loving nature and selfless demeanor. In her free time, she enjoyed adult coloring books and making beautiful scrapbooks that will be treasured by her family for years to come. As a military wife, Louetta and her family traveled, and lived all over the United States and Germany, creating a loving home in each location.

Louetta's love for her children and grandchildren was great. There was nothing more she enjoyed than taking her grandchildren to various parks and church. She will live on through the hearts of her loved ones.

“ I met Louetta several years ago while she was a customer at Kirlins Hallmark where I worked. I always looked forward to seeing her smiling face and our friendly visits. I will always remember her love for her Lord and her family. She was not ashamed to share something about the Lord, anywhere and anytime. She encouraged me many times. She was a very special person. She will be greatly missed by those who knew and loved her. I was blessed to have her as my friend. God bless.
