“ Marjorie's loved ones (of which there are many)...I am so very sorry for your loss of such a beautiful, kind, loving, God-fearing, faithful woman. Heaven's gain is a big loss for us left behind. Sometimes it makes a little sense to us as to when we lose someone we love. And with Marjorie we know that God let us keep her so long because she was such a good and faithful servant. I surely would love to see her book of accomplishments for God because I know she set such a fine example for everyone she met. Love, (((Hugs))), and Prayers to all who love this lady!

“ when I think of what memories to share with you girls, the first one that comes to mind is when you all brought your camper and parked it in our yard. Your parents stayed in my room and I stayed in the camper with you girls. We did not have anyone to tell us it was time for bed. That was fun. I think about that all the time. All the times we got together and laughed and carried on was fun. I am sorry about your mom and tell you girls I am praying for you all. I know one day I will be going thru that. Just remember one day we can see her again and wont get away from her then. We will be with her forever. Love you all and miss our times together too. Love, Deanna Schermer

“ She was such a Godly mother in Israel. She was my husband and I's spiritual mother. Her and Bro Whitaker prayed for us till we prayed through. We loved her with all our hearts.

“ I worked with Marjorie for several years at GEMLP. She was a sweet, Godly woman who I became friends with and became friends with 2 of her daughters, also. When she married Tom, I photographed their wedding. There is a joyous celebration in Heaven as one so dearly loved is welcomed home. She will be missed very much.
