“ Dear Dave & Linda & family, we are also saddened to hear of Mark’s passing. We are holding you up in our hearts, thoughts and prayers. Like others, my favorite memory is when, out of the blue, he would say Hi over social media. I do wish I had as good a memory as my mom b/c then I’d be able to remember when we all saw each other in Denver,CO one time. He had a great smile. Praying for God to hold you well during these trying times. With much love ❤️

“ Dave, Linda and family: Words do not express my sorrow and sympathy for your loss. I remember Mark, sitting in his desk in my class, chatty sweet Mark. I am heartbroken to hear of his passing but I am sure my sorrow can not match your grief. I wish I could say or do something to help. I am sure Mark will be at Heaven's gate to greet you when the time comes.

*With sympathy,
Chris Gebben*

“ Mark was a friend of our daughter, and would see him there. We always brought coffee back for him from Thailand, and will think of him every time we go. He was a good friend to others, & loved his cats. Mark would send wishes on certain holidays. We will miss him!!
