“ She lived down the street from me quite a few years ago in Richmond ave on the corner. So sad when she moved. My daughter at that time was around 8
And she loved to sit on her porch and talk and talk to her . She thought her name was Marybell all together and she told her she could call her that so we did from then on. I talked with her last weekend she had just had a birthday and she said she was tired and ready.... fly high Marybell you were are special friend we will never forget!!!
