Virginia Barrow, age 96, of Mattoon, IL, passed away at Odd Fellow Rebekah Home, Mattoon, IL, at 5:00 p.m., Thursday, September 13, 2012. The funeral service in her honor will begin at 2:00 p.m., Monday, September 17, 2012 at Mitchell-Jerdan Funeral Home, 1200 Wabash Avenue, Mattoon, IL , 61938. Reverend Robert Clark will officiate. Interment will be in Branchside Cemetery, Gays, IL. Visitation will be held Monday afternoon from 1:00 p.m. until the time of services at 2:00 p.m., at the funeral home. Virginia was born April 14, 1916, in Moultrie County, near Gays, IL, to Henry and Anna (Hortensine) Fleenor. She married Cecil Raymond Barrow on June 16, 1940. He preceded her in death in 1976. She is survived by her daughter, Rebecca Ann Barrow, of Mattoon, IL; two nieces, Alice Deininger and her husband Warren of Decatur, IL, and Rita Getz and her husband Jim of McHenry, IL; her very close friend, Bruce Daily and his wife Jo of Mattoon, IL. In addition to her parents and her husband, Virginia was preceded in death by her three sisters: her twin sister Genevieve Daily, as well as Margaret Lee Daily, and Mary Ruth Boyd. Mrs. Barrow was a lifetime member of the First Christian Church of Mattoon, IL where she was a dedicated organist for over 25 years, and for Mitchell-Jerdan Funeral Home, which she particularly enjoyed for over 45 years. She also taught piano lessons to a large class of students for many years. She studied for four years and graduated from Millikin University, Decatur, IL. She enjoyed creating Christmas cards by hand for relatives and close friends. She loved painting as well as decorating her home. Tending to her garden and canning her produce were also just a couple of her favorite things to do. \r\n\r\nIn lieu of flowers, memorials in her honor may be made to the charitable organization of the donor's choice.\r\n
