“ I (Bridgiette) have such fond memories of Aunt Olive and Aunt Nora. So many of them in the kitchen cooking big family dinners. I remember Aunt Olive telling me never to throw out the water the potatoes cooked in but to use it in my gravy. Her life is such a treasure to our family. The memories of her laughter and spirit will live on with us forever. I am sure Aunt Olive and Aunt Nora are having some wonderful times in Heaven now!

“ Such a loss for a beautiful wholesome woman. One with a smile that would knock you over and a heart of gold. You would never find a kinder person ! May all the angels welcome her to heaven! And prayers to her wonderful family who all are just as kind and sweet as her. Love, Carla & Jerry Freeman
