“ Boomer, please accept my sympathies for Patricia's passing. It has been a struggle for her, but she is now in a better place. I regret that I will be in Springfield the next two days for our annual YMCA conference and will be unable to pay personal respects, but please know that you will be in our prayers. John

“ Though our times with Patricia were too brief, she had a smile to light up the room. I loved her laugh and her love of our brother, Boomer. She was a gift to you, Jim, as you were to her. \r\nShe is restored to wholeness in God's grace and will always watch over you and the "kids" she loved so.
