“ You brought so much happiness into my daughter Teah's life the day she met you. You two shared a special love, a love that few have the privilege to share let alone be witness to. A love that is unconditional, honest \r\nAnd unwavering. I have loved you as my son from the first time we met. You leave many happy memories for us to reflect upon. But what I will always remember most is the look in your eyes when you looked into Teah's eyes, This I shall cherish. Your presence will be missed in our family. We love you Paul\r\nNancy James
