“ I have so many fond memories of Paula. When we were Young we played together while our moms had Bible study. In high school we ate lunch together. We were in each others weddings. When our babies were Young we helped each other. In the end we had respiratory therapy together. She will be missed. Rest in peace friend.

I first met Paula several years ago when I was researching her mother's "Ten Sisters" Waggoner family. Both of her parents are related to me.
