“ Shawn and I were best friends in Fishers, Indiana. We had a lot of great times. We always kept in touch no matter where we were at in the county. You were a great great friend. You loved your daughter more then anything in the world. I will always miss you during baseball season. Go Cards! Love you buddy. RIP brother.

“ Shawn and I were at a function with a vendor and had gotten into a “discussion” over something I’d said to the vendor. Regardless of the fact that he was right, I was too stubborn to admit it. Shawn leaned towards me to make an additional point and I ended up head-butting him SO hard we both saw stars. He turned and said, “you did that on purpose!” with this look on his face...and I just cracked up (as I rubbed my head in pain). Just then one of the vendor reps comes by wanting to snap a pic - I told her “no way, I refuse to take a pic with him!” He grabs my shoulder and says, “smile and say cheeeese!” (first pic). I whispered something snarky only Shawn could hear, and we both bust up laughing (second pic). One of my favorite memories of working with Shawn. (Eventually, I did acknowledge that he had been right, while he acknowledged that I did not head-butt him on purpose.) 😊❤️

I’m incredibly saddened this happened, and so sorry he’s no longer with us.

“ Shawn was a great mentor to me. He believed in me and got me started in my sales career. He inspired me to become a great salesperson and the reason I have had such a long successful career in sales.

“ Sandy, Mickey and family,
I realize there are no words of comfort that come with the loss of a child but please know as a kid Shawn was such a delight the times I was around him at church and when he attended my VBS class in the summer. His smile and mischief made him a favorite!
Praying God's peace and comfort on your family.
