“ Dear Family of Tom Wieber,\r\nI was so saddened to hear of Tom's death. Tommy and his Mom and brother Dave lived across the street from our Brady family. He became an extension of our family, our little brother. He was a gentle giant, both physical size and heart. He had the greatest laugh, almost like he was going to collapse. I can hear it now. He got involved in sports with my brothers and nephew John Barry. He had an "assumed"place in our home and remained a loving friend. Oh the Heavens are brimming with Angels. I don't have to pray about this because I trust God wrapped Tom in His loving embrace and he is with his Heavenly family. Please accept our love and sympathy. Love and love, Debe and Brady Gelvin
