“ Viv was a warm and gracious lady, very friendly and welcoming. I loved the food she made for Connie and me on Friday nights, and I really enjoyed her company. I know she went through a long and difficult struggle, but now she is finally at peace, with God up in heaven. Rest in peace, dear Viv. I miss your shining smile. Love, your friend always, Judi

“ We sure hope there is a poker game in heaven, because she sure did like to play (that is when she wasn't cranking Matt's swing up or trying to make him more "comfortable" when he was a baby). Viv was a special person and we know you will miss her.
